

Supplementary Figure 2. Control points selection for rigid surface registration. Eight control points from the superior-ventral (A) region and ten control points from the superior-dorsal (B) region were selected from the reference (patient QCT) and from the aligned geometry (physical model CT scan) respectively. The red circles represent the registration points selection areas.