

Figure S5. The quantile-quantile plot showing the log-transformed distributions of limma regression p -values associated with the DNAm differences in ASD cases compared to matching controls. The red line depicts a theoretical line according to the normal distribution.