

Supplementary Figure 4. Within-trimester correlations for serum cytokine levels. Spearman's correlation coefficient was calculated pairwise between cytokines within each trimester as indicated. Correlation is stated as number when statistically significant ($P < 0.05$). The cytokines are sorted by functional group and the frames enclose within-group correlations.