

Supplementary Figure 5. Internalization control for phagocytosis experiments.

Spike beads were stained with the acid-sensitive dye pHrodo (FITC) and were then opsonized with dilutions of selected monoclonal antibodies. The cells were then analyzed by flow cytometry to determine the rate of bead internalization. A cell that was doubly fluorescent in APC and FITC has had internalized Spike-beads.