Figure S1. Quality assessment of the transcriptome data. A) Normalization of the raw counts (left) was applied in order to reduce the non-biologically derived variability generating normalized counts (right). B) Using a Principal Component Analysis (PCA) we identified one outlier sample (F36), which was removed in the further analysis.